Madewell Year-Round Tanks, $18
Madewell.com

L Barbara Reich: The Madewell tank top is the ultimate wardrobe staple, perfect as an underpinning worn alone. It has just the right amount of stretch in it, and you can't beat the price...$18 at Madewell.com.

J Jane and Liz: We agree! This is our favorite go-to tank as well. In fact we both just stocked up on a bunch of new white and black tanks for fall/winter.

Blue Lizard Sunscreen, $15.99
Drugstore.com

L Barbara Reich: Developed in response to Australia's intense UV environment, Blue Lizard Australian Sunscreen (amazon.com or drugstore.com) is heavy-duty protection... a must have all year round. My daughter is allergic to most sunscreens, my son is a freckled redhead, and my husband and I love being outdoors. We count on Blue Lizard to keep us sun-safe!

J Jane and Liz: Blue Lizard is what our dermatologists recommends for our kids too!

Hermes Enamel Bracelets, $430 +
Hermes

L Barbara Reich: My Hermes enamel bracelet (Hermes.com) has been my go-to accessory for an amazing four years now. Hermes makes so many interesting patterns with the most vibrant colors. Since I wear a lot of neutral colors and monochrome outfits (yes, black in the winter and white in the summer), my bright blue bracelet saves me from being boring. This bracelet perks up any outfit!

J Liz and Jane: No denying these are a classic.
